
791 { United States
vs
Major General Andrew Jackson }

Interrogatories to the defendant Major General Andrew Jackson were ^{now} filed by the district attorney.

On this day appeared in person Major General Andrew Jackson, and being informed by the Court that an attachment had issued against him for the purpose of bringing him into Court, and the district attorney having filed Interrogatories, the Court informed General Jackson that they would be tendered to him for the purpose of answering thereto, — the said General Jackson refused to receive them or to make any answer to the said Interrogatories.

Whereupon the Court proceeded to pronounce Judgment, which was that Major General Andrew Jackson do pay a fine of One thousand dollars to the United States.

And then the Court adjourned until Friday next the 7th of April at Ten O'clock in the forenoon.
