The following matters were discussed:

- Status of the Economic and Property Damages Settlement.
- Status of the Medical Benefits Settlement.
- Status of the Halliburton and Transocean Punitive Damages and Assigned Claims Settlements.
- Government Entity Settlements and the remaining claims by Government Entities ("Bundle C") in litigation.
- Settlements of claims that opted out of or were excluded from the Economic and Property Damages Settlement.
- Status of "B1 Bundle" claims remaining in litigation.
- Status of "B3 Bundle" claims remaining in litigation, including claims against defendants not named in the B3 Master Complaint.

Remaining claims against Halliburton and Transocean.

Motion to Authorize the Claims Administrator to Implement Settlement re Oil & Gas Support Industry Claims re "Moratoria Loss" Holds/Review (Rec. Doc. 11156). Class Counsel and BP shall discuss and attempt to come to an agreement over the next 60 days, and then report to the Court.

Motion to Interpret and Enforce the Settlement Agreement (re Customer Mix Test/Policy 345 v.3) (Rec. Doc. 14599). ORDERED that BP shall file a response no later than March 10, 2017.

Request that Court allow counsel for claimants in Economic Settlement to obtain contact information for other claimants' counsel who have similar issues pending in the Economic Settlement. ORDERED that the request is DENIED.

BELO claims process under the Medical Benefits Settlement.

Common Benefit Attorneys' Fees and Expenses

Future case management for MDL 2179, including:

The Court plans to issue a pretrial/case management order for the B3 Bundle that will require B3 plaintiffs to file a Sworn Statement and, in some cases, an individual complaint, similar to what was done with the B1 plaintiffs in PTO 60.

The Court plans to issue a pretrial/case management order that will address the pleading bundles other than B3 and some cases that are not in any specific pleading bundle.
